

EVA3 Protective Case

EVA3 Protective Case

The EVA3 protective case is a sleek and appealing shield for the iPad. This soft, easy to hold foam-based case is simple to carry and protects your device from drops and tumbles. It features a completely redesigned handle and integrated dual angle stand to provide improved stability, better viewing options, and easy attachment of Compusult's carrying strap and stylus.

New EVA3 Features

- Larger, easy grip handle with improved strap attachment points
- New handle design offers better viewing angles and stability, stylus storage, and an accessory slot for Compusult mini Bluetooth speaker or portable power bank.
- Fits 10.2" iPad including new 9th Generation and 10.5" iPad Air.
- Enhanced impact resistant materials, including better reinforced corners.
- A raised screen bezel to better protect your mobile device screen during accidental drops.
- Soft and easy to hold, but not too big and bulky.
- 100% non-toxic, lightweight and environmentally friendly materials, with no metal components (lead, latex, phthalate and PVC free).
- Resistant to oils, chemicals, stains, molds and germs.
- Durable and lightweight.
- Easy to clean.
- Available in black and blue. Other colours available on special volume orders.

Mobile Accessory Bundle

Compusult's Mobile Accessory Bundle comes with a variety of accessories for your iPad. Each bundle includes an EVA3 protective case for your device, Compusult's tempered glass screen protector, an optional carrying strap, an ergonomic metal stylus, and the iGo Bluetooth wireless portable speaker. Please note this bundle includes accessories only, iPad devices not included.

EVA3 Protective Case with Optional Carrying Strap

Compusult's EVA3 is an easy-to-hold, foam-based case that protects your device from accidental drops and tumbles. It features even better protection and stability, a built-in convertible stand that doubles as a handle, a stylus storage slot and cut-outs for attaching Compusult's EVA3 carrying strap.

Compusult's iGo Bluetooth Portable Wireless Speaker

Compusult's iGo Bluetooth wireless speaker is a perfect pairing for any mobile device running AAC apps. iGo's portable, splashproof design provides excellent volume and clarity, ensuring you are heard when communicating through any AAC app for iPad, Android and Windows. It features 5 hours of continuous play time, allows for hands-free calling, has a powerful 5-Watt speaker and a special acoustic design that lets air compress and expand to release sound energy. It also has a built-in carabiner clip, microphone and microSD card slot.

Tempered Glass Screen Protector and Stylus

Ease of use and protection are further enhanced with Compusult's tempered glass screen protector and ergonomic metal stylus.

This bundle can also be configured with any or all of the following accessory options upon request. Choose the solution that works best for you.
