ZoomText and Quick Keystroke Review

ZoomText is one of the leading screen magnifier/ reader software packages on the market. It allows you to see and hear what you're doing in all applications. The patented 'xFont' technology displays crystal clear text at all magnification levels. The screen reader and background reader give your eyes a rest while ZoomText reads your documents, Web pages, and other information back to you in a natural sounding voice.

This course will cover:

- Overview of program options and settings in the program: zoom, cursor, mouse, focus and color contrast settings
- Using zones with specific documents and websites
- App Reader and Doc Reader
- Web Finder and Desktop Finder search tools
- Text-to-speech functions and options

You will receive:

- A large print reference guide
- Electronic documents with keystrokes organized according to your personal use
- Exercises and ideas for future skill development once you master the level taught in the session
